

INVITATION

FUTURE VISION SEMINAR - SEPTEMBER 20TH, 2017

Welcome to a seminar focusing on defining visions for the future development of the Institute of Medicine. During this day you will be given opportunity to contribute with creating the future goals for our institute. It will be an exciting and creative day for all employees. The day will also focus on socializing and networking, ending with dinner and entertainment at the venue.

PROGRAMME

11.30 – 12.30	Registration and lunch
12.30 – 12.40	Welcome
12.40 – 13.10	My strategy as Director of the Institute of Medicine - Hans Carlsten
13.10 – 15.15	Workshop - group discussions to improve administration, basic science, clinical science, and translational research at the institution
15.15 - 15.45	Coffee break
15.45 - 16.15	How to succeed in going from a young promising researcher to a senior researcher? - Fredrik Bäckhed and Sofia Movérare Skrtic
16.15 - 16.40	"The grass is always greener on the other side" - how can we keep successful (younger) researchers? - Martin Bergö
16.40 - 17.00	Where would the Institute of Medicine like to be within 3-5 years? How will we succeed to achieve the goals to go there? - Organizing committee
17.00 – 17.30	Mingle and some bubbles
17.30 – 19.00	Inspiration lecture by the explorer Aron Anderson
19.00 -	Dinner and entertainment

Venue: Scandic Hotel Rubinen, Kungssportsavenyn 24

Welcome,

Hans Carlsten and the organizing committee

